

ACHIEVEability celebrates 35th anniversary

Tribune Staff Report Apr 11, 2016

Kevin Dow, left, Mayor James Kenney and Councilman Curtis Jones Jr. were among the guests at the Food for Thought fundraiser. — Tribune Photos/Robert Mendelsohn

Marcus Allen CEO of Big Brothers Big Sisters and a former executive director of ACHIEVEability, received an award from Wanda Mial, the current executive director.

ACHIEVEability celebrated its 35th anniversary in holding an annual fundraiser, Food for Thought. More than 20 chefs and restaurants were featured along with live music and other activities on Saturday at Urban Outfitters at The Navy Yard in Philadelphia.